

THE TALLY

A Merry Christmas

and

A Happy New Year!

The McNally Senior Cheerleaders

Finally our Senior Cheerleaders made enough money to make new basketball uniforms. It was raised by several different projects--a school ring raffle, a box lunch social, and a few popcorn sales from last year. The uniforms aren't quite completed, but will be in a couple of weeks.

Another box social was held in the cafeteria on Friday the 13, "Dutch Style".

The cheerleaders are planning something quite different for the Christmas Lit. Make sure you don't miss it. They will be making fools of themselves as usual.

What is a Teacher?

To a parent a teacher is an exspurt, keeping in mind that an ex is a has been and a spurt is a drip under pressure.

To a clergyman a teacher is a person who would never see him penniless. Indeed, every devout teacher can be counted on for at least five pennies in the collection plate every Sabbath.

To a janitor a teacher is one of those ~~who~~ ~~never~~ ~~make~~ ~~the~~ ~~kids~~ ~~pick~~ ~~up~~ ~~anything~~ who never make the ~~Δ~~ ~~*~~ ~~7~~ ~~5~~ ~~0~~ ~~5~~ ~~0~~ ~~5~~ ~~0~~ kids pick up anything.

The Tally is going to sponsor a photo contest. All entries are asked to be in by January 13. Hand your entries in to Miss Reason's Mail Box in the Office.

Sport's News

McNally's Tigers finished third in the C.A.P.H.E.R. Basketball Tournament. They beat Austin O'Brien, to advance to the quarter-finals. They defeated Ross Sheppard in the quarter-final and lost to J.P. in the final. This is McNally's best showing to date. They now have one of the four positions in the 1st annual Christmas Tournament.

Christmas Fashions

Well girls, the Christmas season is approaching and it's time for all that glint and glitter!

The Metallic dresses are really big this season and the Velvets are here in bright solid colors; some of these are very dainty with the addition of ribbons and lace.

For real "partying times" the Crepe dresses with the flaring sleeves trimmed with Marabou are really lovely.

Hang on to your wallets-----
The average price of these dresses starts at $26.00.

A New Contest

The Tally is going to sponsor a poetry contest. All entries are asked to be in Miss Reason's Mail Box in the Office by January 13.

The best photo and poem will be printed in the January issue of the Tally.

The TALLY appreciates most sincerely the cheerful, unprofane, patient, assistance given by Mr. Bock and his department in getting out this Christmas issue. MR. LIPINSKY, as part of "our gang," is like a husband or wife---he never expects nor gets thanks. Without his cooperation, neither this paper nor the last one would ever have reached its readers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I am glad there is a smoking area in McNally but it's usage should be controlled. That is the idea about the area being suspended for a week if the cigarettes are not put in the trash cans is good,

This way the establishment will be happy and so will the students. Fights in the area and various other disturbances could also be controlled.

A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS IN WALES

Mr. Missal has chosen four students to appear in his presentation of Dylan Thomas' play "A Child's Christmas in Wales." The play has been divided into four voices, with the cast as follows:

First voice: Murray
Second voice: Colin Marshall
Third voice: Cheryl Wilson
Fourth voice: Jacqueline

The play will be presented at the Christmas Lit, which starts at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, December the 19. All students and their friends and families are invited.

GRADUATION

GRAD IS COMING! and we are all, I am sure, very pleased that Daena is our Grad President and that Julie is our Grad Secretary. Each and every grade 12 student is looking forward to May 10: the flowers, the gowns, the suits, the dinners, and the parties.

Planning a graduation such as we hope to have will take a lot of arranging, time, and organizing.

If you have any suggestions for your Grad., tell these girls-- they will appreciate your help.

'Twas the night before Christmas, and all through the pad
not a hipster was stirring,
not even old dad.

Groaner: There were two hippies sitting in a bus when a nun with a cast on her leg got on and sat down beside them.

1st. hippy: Hey Sister, how did you break your leg?

Nun: I slipped and fell in the bath tub.

2nd. hippy to 1st. hippy: Hey man, what's a "bath tub"?

1st. hippy: How should I know? I'm not Catholic!

Christmas Concert

Thursday, December 19, 1968
the McNally Band and Orchestra will present their Christmas Concert.

The first concert this year was the "Pops Concert" and it was a real success.

We are sure the Christmas concert is going to be even better.
