

McNally Composite High School, Edmonton, Alberta
May 5, 1971

The McNally gymnastics team did what no other gymnastics team in Edmonton has done yet; they won the city championships for three consecutive years.

The finals were held on March 19 at Ross Shepard. There was a lot of support from McNally, which made us feel good and we'd like to extend a "thank-you" to all the people from McNally who acted as judges, runners, score-keepers, and time-keepers.

The team would also like to thank Mrs. Eurchuk for all the time and work she has devoted to us for the last three years. She has made us what we are.

How did we manage to defeat the other teams by a huge margin of 80 points? Well, for a starter, Carol Mellor came in second all-round, Betty

Lou Gwartney came in with third all-round, in the year ( just for fun ) on Tuesdays and Fridays. So please, feel free to come and work out with us.

 senior category. Carol, by the way, beat G. Desutter (gold-medalist of the Winter Games ) in two events. Susan Slade, a junior, took first in vaulting. Pat Bailey won first all-round in novice. Everyone else did really well too, but four girls, as well as Liz Bowen in advanced, qualified for the provincial competition on March 27, in Calgary.

And now for a word about the fate of McNally' gymnastics team next year: out of the fourteen girls in the team, seven are graduating this year ; McNally is in serious trouble, unless you come out for the team. We're planning to keep up practices for the rest of the

McNally Curling League

Again this year, our McNally Curling League was very successful. Our McNally curlers combined with those of Austin $\mathrm{O}^{\circ} \mathrm{Br}-$ ien to form a combined league of 18 teams. Curling took place every wednesday, at the Ottewell Curling Club, all through winter.

Our top McNally team, skipped by Richard Mellor was just crowded out of top place in the overall standings in the last few weeks. This honor went to the A.O.B. team skipped by Jerry Wilson. In the McNally standings Richard Mellor, Sid Shier, Brian Frost and Mitch Dittberner became the champs. Not too far behind in second came the team of Brian Davis, Laureen Johnston, Tyler Tupechka and Glen Mottershead. Following in third came Daryl Ferko's team and in fourth the McNally Teacher's team.

This year our league spent almost $ 50. to buy a school Curling trophry. This trophey is still on display downstairs outside the main office and everyone is welcomed to come and see it. We hope that it will serve as an inspiration to succeeding McNally Leagues. I would like to thank all the curlers who helped make our league successful and I would hope that they again curl next season. Why don't you become a McNally curler next year ?

Swimming
The city finals in swimming were held on Feb. 19 with most of our swimwers entered in the meet. The results were that we gave it a good try but.... The placements ranged from 2nd to 9th. Swimmers entered in the meet were Jan Robertson, Joan Lymburner, Janice Villet, Shirley Weeks, Carol Love, Allan Palynchuk, Frank Allore, Paul Ryhanen and Andy Kettle. Considering the few swimmers entered our team did very well. We would like to congradulate the team and their coach Jan Robertson in their great effort.

BLOOD DONOR CLINIC

On March l8th McNally held it's annual Blood Donor Clinic. A total of 108 donations were recieved from the McNally student body. Taking into account the new 18 year old age limit for the girls we did surprisingly well almost equaling last years donations. Everyone who participated realized the importance of donating blood which truly is " The Gift of Life".

McNally Band in Vancouver

Ninety McNally students from the McNally band program went to Vancouver on the 2lst of April.

They were accompagnied
 by three chaperones and their illustrious leader Mr. Goodwin. They preformed a well recieved concert at the Delbrook High School in North Vancouver. While there a battery of hosts and hostesses from Delbrook High attended to all their needs. They returned from their journey last week and have again settled back into the usual life at McNally.

The 55-year-old bachelor woke up one morning feeling like a twenty-one-yearold. But he could'nt find one that early in the morning.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the grieving family and friends of a McNally student, adventurer, Herman Dinkledorf, who attempted to cross the North Saskatchewan by tunnel. Came up too soon, poor devil.

LE COIN FRANÇAIS
Tous ces articles-cibas concernent une colonne qui apparaît dans les journeaux en France. Si on demeurait en France, on écrirait à Marcelle Segal si on avait les problemes personnelles. La première lettre était écrite d'un amoureux malheureux qui avait écrit à Marcelle Segal pour du conseil. Marcelle lui avait donné du conseil qui n'avait point résolu, sa problème. En realité, son conseil a fait la probleme plus mauvaise. Les lettres suivantes sont des reponses à la premiere lettre. Les etudiants de Mme. Erwin ont écrit ceux-ci pour démontrer leurs talents en écriture française. Étant amusant, nous les reimprimons tellement que vous puissiez les jouir.

Chère Marcelle Segal,
Rappelez-vous que $j^{\prime}$ ai écrit à vous demander du conseil sur ma jeune fille qui ne fait pas attention à moi ? Vous m?avez dit que je dois parler et flirter avec son amie, Jacqueline. Tiens, j'ai pris vos conseils. J'ai toujours parlé avec elle et j’ai flirté avec elle aussi. Ca alors, maintenant Jacqueline croit que je I'aime bien, et vraiment je la déteste! Elle me regarde toujours! Ma jeune fille est fachée de moi et ne miaime pas, mais je l'aime très, tres bien. Je crois que vous êtes très distraite et très bête! Qui dit que vous pouvez écrire "Le Courrier du Coeur" ? Moi, je crois quiun chien peut le faire mieux. J'aimerais vous étrangler! Je ne vous écrirai pas encore!

Malheureux
Cher Malheureux,
Je suis desolée que vous êtes faché de moi mais je faisais de mon mieux. Peut-être vous n'êtes pas très intelligent, ou gentil, ou beau, ou quelque chose et elle ne vous aimera jamais. Votre jeune fille et vous êtes trop jeunes pour liamour. Vous avez besoin de votre maman et vous $n^{\prime}$ avez pas besoin de votre jeune fille. Trouvez une nouvelle distraction.

> Marcelle Segal M.F.

Cher Malheureux,
Je me rappelle quand tu mécrivais. Tu as pris mon conseil mais tu jouais le Cassanova! C'est dommage! Je crois que tu $n^{\prime}$ as pas raisonné les choses. Explique à ta jeune fille et demande un ami d'occuper Jacqueline.

Si cela ne marche pas alors, écris à mon chien et tu , peux metrangler s'il repond.

Marcelle Segal V.G.

Cher Malheureux,

Ne t'inquiète pas. Ce sont deux jeunes filles un peu distraites. Trouve une nouvelle jeune fille, qui est tres jolie et assez intelligente. Tu tiamuseras bien.

Marcelle Segal
L.S.

Cher Malheureux,
C'est curieux que mes conseils ont echoué. J'en suis desolée, mais je crois que vous êtes fou! Quiand je vous ai dit que vous devez parler et flirter avec elle, je ne croyais pas que vous voudriez le prendre justement. Pour maintenant, la meilleure chose à faire est de lui dire la verité. Peutêtre elle voudrait vous pardonner. Tiens, nous pouvons espèrer. Bonne chance!

Marcelle Segal
P.E.

Cher Malheureux,
Ne me blâme pas si vos problemes ne se resoudent pas. Je ne suis pas Dieu! Je ne peux pas l'aider si vous êtes bête!

Marcelle Segal L.E.

Cher Malheureux,
Vous êtes très bête Malheureux! Votre jeune fille est une enfante. Elle ne vous aime pas. Elle aimerait mieux votre amie, Jacqueline. C'est curieux, $n^{\prime}$ est-ce pas ? Vous devriez aller vite à une autre ville peut-être. Votre fille n'est pas gentille. D'ailleurs, vous êtes trop jeune pour I'amour. Prenez une aspirine et restez dans votre chambre.

Marcelle Segal Sandy

Cher Malheureux,
Vous êtes très distrait. Si vous avez cru le conseil, vous êtes bête! Je vous ai donné le conseil pour vous amuser seulement, ne pas vous aider! Si vous comprenez ce que je dis, puis j'ajouterai que je suis desolee vers votre malheur. Possiblement vous pouvez parler avec elle. Si pas, dommage!

Marcelle Segal

C'est la fin!

CLUB REPORTS

Trend
The yearbook, as far as all indications go, promises to be the best yet and the hardworking organizers are slowly but surely getting it organized. If you are genuinely interested in helping to do such tasks as identifying pictures, writing captions , or doing layouts contact Mr. Johnson.

Library Club

The Library Club is mainly a service club in that it assists the librarian in cleaning up, filing, and just generally helping keep the library running smoothly. If you wish to join the club see Mrs. Buccini in the library. More members are allways welcome.

Art
The Art Club this year it seems sunk to the bottom. Most of it's former members, it appears, are taking art lessons. But there is hope yet, if a student or a group of students are interested in reorganizing the art club, you can see Mrs. Biro about the possibility.

Photography Club
There are about eight, inert members. The person interveiwed was vague in reporting. Maybe they really are nonexistant.

Booster Club
The Booster Club is an organization devoted to the promotion of school spirit and activities. So far this year the booster club has met with a certain amount of seccess , but more members are needed to make it even more successful. People are needed to help with taking tickets, working in the cafeteria during the dances - that sort of thing. Interrested students are invited to watch the students bulletin for meeting notices. Everyone is welcome.

Chess Club
The Chess Club has about 25 members, so they don't really need any new ones. Tournaments are underway for the trophey for the best chess player. These are taking place in Room 215 and you are welcomed to come and watch.

Bridge

There is bridge at noon in Room 225 for anyone who wishes to play.

It seems that Ted was playing his usual 18 holes one Saturday afternoon. On the 17th hole he missshot and his shot landed in the rough. Just as he was about to chip onto the green, a funeral procession started to pass. He removed his hat, bowed his head and held his hat over his heart. He made a perfect shot and a birdie he had been hoping for for a long time. Back at the clubhouse, his best friend Frank, said, "Say, Ted, that was a real nice gesture you made when that funeral procession passed. " "Yeah," Ted mused. "We would have been maried 20 years next month."

If it remains the same color, you are in good health, and there is no reason on earth why you should not participate in school activities.

Deax TALIY,
By the look of the situation in the cafeteria the S.U.'s initiative in placing student supervisors has flopped. The teachers are stuck with the job? again. Personally I could care less who stands around in the cafeteria. looking after what children there are (by the look of the floor and some of the tables there are still a few left). Some take a long time to grow up and I'm sure that having students standing around instead of teachers would not have made any difference.

Debating

On March 6th, the 1971 Alberta School's Debating Championships were held at McNally. Teams from St. F.X.X. Harry Ainlay, Mac., Louis St. Laurent, and Queen E. were all here, not to mention the teams from Calgary and Athabasca who also competed.

There were two events, the Novice for those who were in their first year of debating, and the Open, for anyone who wished to debate. The prize for the Opens was a huge trophey, donated by Doug White, for mer President of the McNally debating club. Also going to the winners of the Opens was a trip to Port Hope for a debating seminar.

To the Novice winners went a cheque and a trophey from the Oddfellows and Rebecca's.

McNally was very well represented in both events - The Novice event was won by Chris Feniak and Gail Black from McNally. They beat out the team from Edwin Parr by a small margin.

We did not do as well in the Open event. Ken Arthur and Gary Draper came in second, behind Harry Ainlay. Ken and Gary will be representing McNally in Port Hope at the end of April.

The results of this tournament shows that, although McNally did not win in the Open event, we were easily the most powerful force at the tournament. We had 7 of the top 10 speakers. In the Novice event, McNally had the top two speakers. This sounds even better when one con-

Typical Swash-Buckling Pirate scene - The black ship has pulled up alongside the defenseless Merchant ship. The pirate captain, rings in both ears, smelly, unshaven, patch over the eye - the whole bit - gets ready to swing over dramatically, sword in hand - all his crew looking on . . . . .

a) Soaring ferociously - continued through the air, teeth gnashing, with a couple of "Har"s thrown in for good measure, he doesint quite make it. The crews of both ships solemnly watch as he screams all the way down

b) The Captain makes it to the railing, which colapses under him and throws him overboard anyway again with the crews looking on.
c) He bombs in ( camera is slightly behind the main mast ) sailing gracefully. . .You see the mast . . . then on either side, growing larger, a pair of elbows and legs . . . a crunch, then a clank as the sword drops to the deck, and a soft thud as the captain follows. A nice middle-aged lady had her portrait painted. The artist had done an excellent job and she was satisfied. But there was one more thing.
"Would you mind," she asked the artist, "making a. few additions ?"
"Not at all," he said, anticipating a larger fee.
"I would like you to add a diamond tiara on my head, around my neck a double strand of pearls, on my dress, paint in a diamond broach and . . ."
"I'd be happy to," the artist said. "But why ?
"Well, I'll tell you," she explained. "My husband is running around with another woman. I think that they are planning to do away with me. When I die, I want her to go crazy looking for all this jewlry."
